Publications:

More than two hundred articles both in English and Bengali languages related to politics, laws, constitution, national, regional and international issues have been published in various national and international academic and non-academic journals, dailies and weeklies.

One of the noteworthy ventures was the publication of books, which as follows now stand four in number.

- 'For A President Who Can Taka An Initiative' published by Bangladesh Political Science Association. It focuses mainly on the politico-constitutional standing of the President of Bangladesh following the Constitution (Twelfth Amendment) Act of 1991.
- Samoyer Kabita (Poems of the call of time) published by Bangladesh Writers' Foundation. Theme of the book rotates around the ongoing political landscapes in Bangladesh with an ardent urge to bring about reform in these sectors. It has widely been accepted, reviewed and applauded. It was also adjudged as one of the best book by Bangladesh Writers Foundation.
- 'Reflections on Non-Party, Neutral Care-Taker Government'—collections of articles on the topics-- published by Bangladesh Political Science Association. It pinpoints the various aspects and anomalies of the Constitution (Thirteenth Amendment) Act of 1996.
- 'O United Nations' published by Bangladesh Political Science Association. It focuses on the past, present and future of the United Nations. For the book, Bangladesh Philosophical Association and Bogota Free Planet, a leading Online Daily in South America, honored him with the title 'Global Voice' that has been echoed by International Association of the Historians of Asia, World Federation of the Associations of United Nations Associations, Yale Model United Nations XXXV, Yale University, International Political Science Association, Centre for Nepal and Asian Studies, Tribhuban University, Nepal and so forth.

The book has so far brought seven 'awards and recognitions' from home and abroad.

The extended form of this book is now available at www.sinha-ounitednations.com. Dorrance Publishing House, one of the largest and oldest Publishing Houses in USA, has meanwhile reviewed the book and expressed its desire to publish in the final form internationally and the matter is at the final stage of striking a contract accordingly.
